

British Society of Paediatric Gastroenterology Hepatology and Nutrition

Post Graduate Day : Wednesday 24th January 2018

Session 1: Access and intervention

Enteral feeding routes: pros and cons

Central Line insertion: types, routes, future developments

Vascular intervention: venoplasty and embolization

Robotic hepatobiliary surgery

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch

Session 2: Optimising prescribing

Drug metabolism in GI and liver disease

Medical management of chronic liver disease

Guest lecture: Modelling drug interactions

15.00-15.30 Coffee break

Session 3: Constipation : a three pronged attack

Nutritional approach to constipation

Medical therapy

Indications for Surgery

Session 4 Plenary

18.00 - 19.00 AbbVie symposium

Mono/combo therapy in biologic treatment in PIBD long term safety & outcome

Social events:

BSPGHAN Annual Football Match – Consultants v Trainees

Opportunity to see Jason Manford Muddle Class Show at Leeds Town Hall (20 tickets only)

20.00 - onwards: Welcome dinner (at conference venue)

Thursday 25th January 2018

07.45-08.55 Working Group Meetings

9.00 – 10.00 Alexion Symposium – details to be confirmed

Session 1: IBD

Surgical options and innovation

Research priorities in IBD

Psychological Aspects of IBD

Session 2: Plenary

12.45 - 14.00 lunch and posters

Session 3: Research and development

PICO presentations

100,000 Genome project and liver and GI disorders

State of the Nation: BSPGHAN / RCPCH Standards : 1 year on

Paediatric Endoscopy Global Rating Scale (GRS): Q and A Session

15.30 - 16.00 Coffee

Session 4: Nutrition

Feeding children with metabolic disease

Failure to thrive in 2018

PN developments

17.45-19.00 AGM

20.00-late Gala dinner: Queen's Hotel Ball room

Friday Leeds 26th January 2018

07.45-09.00 Working Group Meetings

Session 5: How can the profession reduce the morbidity of obesity?

Evidence based management of NAFLD

Role of bariatric intervention in children

Debate: whose problem is obesity?

Society 10 mins

Government 10 mins

Health Professionals 10 mins

Discussion 10 mins

10.50 - 11.30 coffee

Session 6: Plenary 3

12.30 -13.00 Guest lecture:

Risk of malignancy and immunosuppression

13.00-14.00 Lunch and posters

Session 7: Hepatology: "Lancet Symposium"

Introduction

Neonatal cholestasis: towards earlier recognition

Transition: Devising curriculum for adult hepatologists

Eradicating hepatitis C and targets for hepatitis B

Guest lecture:

Liver disease past present and future

15.45 Prize presentation / close of meeting