

King's Paediatric Endoscopy Training Centre*
3rd "Diagnostic and Therapeutic Upper GI workshop"
(* JAG approved)

King's College Hospital

King's Paediatric Liver, GI, Nutrition and Transplant Centre is a national hub providing a highly specialised service to children with liver and GI problems. King's is a well known national training centre for GI and liver training.

Hands on Upper GI (OGD) diagnostic and Therapeutic Course is aimed at Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Surgical trainees. GMC (UK) registration, CRB and occupational health clearance is essential.

Objective :

1. Demonstration and Practice of Upper GI endoscopy procedure
2. Demonstration of Haemostatic techniques including variceal banding

Day 1 Lectures and demonstration

Day 2: Hands on diagnostic session

Day 3: Hands on therapeutic session

Date :

Monday 26th-Wednesday 28th of March 2018

Fee: £695 for full 3 day course
(10% discount applies to BSPGHAN / ESPGHAN registered trainees)
Delegates: 4 candidates only

Faculties:

Dr Babu Vadamalayan (Course Director)
Dr Alastair Baker
Prof M Davenport
Dr B Haye
Dr Tassos Grammatikopoulos
Dr Ben Hope
Dr Anthi Thangarajah
Mr Ashish Desai
Dr Asme Sheikh

Email:

kch-tr.conferencecentre@nhs.net
Tel: 0207 848 5506 (Anne Mckenzie)
www.pgmde.kch.nhs.uk