

Scottish Society of Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition (SSPGHAN) Annual Meeting 2018

Thursday 15th November - Friday 16th November 2018

Stirling Management Centre, University of Stirling, Scotland

Programme

Thursday 15th November 2018

Scottish Business and arrivals

09.00 - 12.00 SSPGHAN business meeting

09.00 - 12.00 AHP/Nurse education meeting (organised by team Edinburgh)

Helpful hint - arrive early if you want a parking space!

Day 1

12.00 - 12.45 Lunch

12.45 - 12.50 'A prelude to PGHAN perfection' David Wilson, Edinburgh

Session 1: Research

12.50 - 13.20 "As good as it gets - life in the PGHAN lab"
Dr Eytan Wine, Edmonton, Canada

13.20 - 13.50 "Nationwide data-linkage research - vital for PGHAN"
Dr Chris Burgess, Edinburgh

Session 2: Perianal Crohn's disease

13.50 - 14.10 "Current and emerging biological and cellular therapies"

14.10 - 1430 "Holistic care - hygiene, wounds and support"
Vikki Garrick, Glasgow

1430 - 1500 "Surgical innovation and dedication"
Mrs Claire Clark, Edinburgh

15.00 - 15.30 Afternoon tea and exhibition

Session 3: Topical transition

- 15.30 - 15.45 “State of the nation reports”
WoS - Dr Rachel Tayler, Glasgow
NoS - Dr Dagmar Kastner, Dundee
SES - Kat Armstrong, Edinburgh
- 15.45 - 16.05 “Short-term process, medium and long term peril in PGHAN transition”

Dr Victoria Merrick, Glasgow
- 16.05 - 16.30 “The adult hepatologist’s perspective”

Session 4: Cutting edge and controversial

- 16.30 - 16.50 “Aeroallergens in GI disease - fact or fantasy?”
Dr Paraic McGrogan, Doha, Qatar
- 16.50 - 17.10 “Highlights from the 5th UK Complex Nutrition and Intestinal Failure
Network Meeting September 2018”
- 17.10 - 17.30 “Highlights from the 5th UK Complex Nutrition and Intestinal Failure
Network Meeting September 2018”
Dr Paul Henderson, Edinburgh
- 17.30 Close
- 17.30 - 19.30 Networking and leisure pursuits
- 19.30 Drinks
- 19.45 DINNER, MUSIC, DANCING etc.

Friday 16th November 2018

Day 2

Session 1 “It’s a bug’s life”:

- 09.00 - 09.40 “Why the microbiome is ubiquitous in health and disease”
Dr Eytan Wine, Edmonton, Canada
- 09.40 - 10.10 “Single cell organisms - huge problems, current solutions”
Prof Billy Bourke, Dublin, Ireland

Session 2 “The medal winning abstracts”:

- 10.10 - 10.20 ‘Bronze’
- 10.20 - 10.30 ‘Silver’
- 10.30 - 10.40 ‘Gold’
- 10.40 - 11.10 Coffee and exhibition

Session 3 “The great teduglutide debate of 2018”:

- 11.00 - 11.10 “Introduction from the chair”
- 11.10 - 11.35 “Teduglutide - the hope”
Dr Sue Protheroe, Birmingham
- 11.35 - 12.00 “Teduglutide - the hype”
Prof Nick Croft, London
- 1200-1230 Open debate
- 12.30 - 13.15 Lunch and exhibition

Session 4 “Poster walk - all aboard!”:

13.15 - 13:30 Compulsory poster walk

Session 5 “A neurogastroenterologist clears up the mess”:

13.30 - 14.10 “Mismanagement of chronic nausea and regurgitation”
Dr Nikhil Tharpar, London

Session 6 “Curious Cases from the Celtic Regions”:

14.10 - 14.25 ‘South-East Scotland’

14.25 - 14.40 ‘West of Scotland’

14.40 - 14.55 ‘North of Scotland’

Session 7 “The liver epidemic of our times”:

14.55 - 15.30 “The modern approach to NAFLD - not just checking LFTs”

Session 8 “Emerged and emerging IBD therapies”:

15.30 - 15.55 “Drug treatment of refractory IBD”

15.55 - 16.20 “Dietary and nutritional therapies for IBD”

Session 9 “It ain’t over until the President goes”:

16.20 Prizes, Auld Lang Syne and Close