

BSPGHAN DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The BSPGHAN Distinguished Service Award is an Annual Award to recognize a BSPGHAN member who has made a major contribution to patient care in paediatric gastroenterology, hepatology or nutrition. It can be recognized as a whole life accomplishment, or celebrate a recent achievement.

ELIGIBILITY AND STANDARDS

The recipient will be a BSPGHAN member at the time of nomination (and have been a member of the Society for at least the last 5 years). The award will be given every year.

Criteria for selection include:

- 1/ Outstanding contributions to the standards, practice and training in the fields of paediatric gastroenterology and/or hepatology and/or nutrition.
- 2/ Outstanding scientific achievements related to paediatric gastroenterology and/or hepatology, and/or nutrition.
- 3/ Outstanding contributions to BSPGHAN society as a whole

Nominees should be put forward by 2 BSPGHAN members through a letter of recommendation signed by each supporting member

Nomination

A call for nominations will be advertised on the BSPGHAN website on or near 1st September each year. The following document should be sent to the BSPGHAN Administrator: carla@bspghan.org.uk

- Letter of recommendation with support from 2 BSPGHAN members (outside of the Council and the Selection Committee), including the reasons for nomination and the specific achievements of the nominee (a CV is not required)

Selection Process

The selection Committee consists of 9 members, including the following:

1. President (Chair of Selection Committee)
2. Executive - Convenor & Treasurer
