

King's Paediatric Endoscopy Training Centre 7th "Diagnostic and Therapeutic Upper GI workshop"

Working with children with digestive, nutritional and liver disorders

British Society for Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition

King's College Hospital

King's Paediatric Liver, GI, Nutrition and Transplant Centre is a national hub providing a highly specialised service to children with liver and GI problems. We are the largest service of its type in the world.

Hands on Upper GI (OGD) diagnostic and Therapeutic Course is aimed at Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Surgical trainees.

Objective :

1. Demonstration and Practice of Upper GI endoscopy procedure
2. Demonstration of Haemostatic techniques including variceal banding

Day 1 Lectures and demonstration

Day 2: Hands on diagnostic session

Day 3: Hands on therapeutic session

Date :

Monday 2nd -Wednesday 4th October 2023

Fee: £695 for full 3 day course

(10% discount applies to BSPGHAN / ESPGHAN registered trainees)

Delegates: 6 candidates only

Faculties:

Dr Babu Vadamalayan (Course Director)

Dr Alastair Baker

Prof M Davenport

Dr Tassos Grammatikopoulos

Dr A Sheik

Mr N Ade Ajayi

Dr H Lee

Dr Hayee Bu

Email: rachel.seymour1@nhs.net

kch-tr.conferencecentre@nhs.net

Tel: 0207 848 5506 / 0203299 5405