

Limited
Places

BSPGHAN Trainees Meeting 2024

October 14th and 15th

📍 DoubleTree by Hilton Leeds City Centre,
LS1 4BR

2-day face-to-face course for budding and existing PGHAN trainees!

Meet PGHAN trainees, hear diverse talks from leading clinicians and hit key GRID and SPIN curriculum points, all in a friendly environment

Topics include:

- ✓ Infantile Cholestasis
- ✓ Nutrition in Chronic liver disease
- ✓ New and emerging Biologics
- ✓ Managing the high output stoma
- ✓ Surgery in IBD
- ✓ Congenital diarrhoea

Course fees

2-day residential package
Including course dinner and accommodation

£140

Non-residential package
2-day attendance

£85

BOOK HERE!

Plus: sessions on GRID and Consultant applications

Provisional Programme

Gastroenterology

Surgical management in IBD – Mr Jonathan Sutcliffe
 Liver disease in IBD– Dr Chaya Kelgeri
 New and emerging biologics – Dr Christian Selinger
 Dermatology in IBD – Dr Gayle Clark
 Congenital diarrhoea – Dr Elena Cernat
 Surgical options in short bowel syndrome – TBC

Gastroenterology

Nutrition

Vegan and vegetarian diets, what the Gastroenterologist needs to know– Dr Jutta Köglmeier
 Central venous lines: troubleshooting common problems: Jenny Gouldthorpe
 Managing the high output stoma and improving enteral tolerance - TBC
 Nutrition in chronic liver disease – Sara Mancell

Nutrition

Hepatology

Metabolic associated steatotic liver disease – Dr Serena Kyrana
 Drugs and Pharmacology in Liver Transplant – Penny North-Lewis
 Liver disease in metabolic disorders – Dr Richard Curnock
 Infantile Cholestasis – Dr Palaniswamy Karthikeyan
 Liver Transplant – Dr Kavitha Jayaprakash

Hepatology

General

Consent and capacity in gastroenterology: Ethics and the law – Dr Harriet Barraclough
 Drugs and Therapeutics – Dr Bob Phillips
 Top tips for applying for and starting Consultant posts – Dr Harriet Barraclough
 Frontline Gastroenterology: breaking research – Professor Mark Beattie

General