

BSPGHAN Paediatric Nutrition and Intestinal Failure Network Day
9th November 2026, Bournemouth International Conference Centre

Morning session

Parenteral nutrition – the pragmatic approach

- 10.00-10.30 Opening & welcome
- 10.30-11.00 Chalk and cheese - PN compatibilities and incompatibilities: from prescribing to compounding to bedside
Venetia Simchowicz, Consultant pharmacist, Great Ormond Street Hospital
- 11.00-12.00 Everything you ever need to know about lines: choosing, insertion (where acceptable), difficult cases (last resort access), line salvage, removal, vascular access team
Dr James Bennett & Dr Dannie Seddon, Consultant Paediatric Anaesthetists, Birmingham Children's Hospital Vascular Access Team
- 12.00-12.30 The Nightingale calling: the nursing journey for patients from hospital to home
Gemma Kavanagh, Lead Nurse for Nutrition Care Department, Birmingham City Hospital

Lunchtime Poster walk – Innovations in parenteral nutrition care

Afternoon session

Paediatric Intestinal Failure – Back to the future – the past to the present

Keynote Lecture

- 13.30-14.00 Evolution in intestinal failure care in children in the last 2 decades and implications for transition & adult services
Dr Susan Hill, Consultant Paediatric Gastroenterologist, Great Ormond Street Hospital & Dr Sue Protheroe, Consultant Paediatric Gastroenterologist, Birmingham Children's hospital
- 14.00-14.30 Evolution in intestinal failure care in adults in the last 2 decades
Dr Simon Gabe, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Lead for intestinal Rehabilitation unit, St Marks's hospital

Debate

- 14.45-15.15 When are end of life care considerations too early?
Dr Michelle Hills, Consultant in Paediatric palliative Medicine, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS trust
- 15.15-15.45 The brain gut axis - Do neurodisabled patients with 'gut dystonia' have intestinal failure? How to manage them?
Dr Andrew Barclay Consultant Paediatric Gastroenterologist & Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer Glasgow

Dr Lisa Whyte Consultant Paediatric
Gastroenterologist Birmingham Children's Hospital

1545-1630 Mini oral presentations
Awards